This schedule and these activities are for both the fall and spring semesters.

I understand my academic program and my university classes are my first responsibility, and I will manage my time and resources in order to fulfill my university requirements, as well as the World Academy assignments. I will communicate immediately, in writing, should my classes change and it is not possible for me to attend Academy classes. Should I experience difficulty in maintaining my schedule and attain high performance in my classes and in the World Academy I will seek support from the World Academy in order to achieve the balance necessary to continue.
